GOLDEN AGE KEYS TO MASTERY

Humanity is being presented with the choices that will determine its future. Many of you have already made the choice to be a conscious participant in ushering in the new Golden Age of Freedom. What precedes a grand shift such as this often appears as chaos and upheaval on the surface. The Masters are reaching into the hearts of those of you who deeply sense that you are here at this time to sustain a powerful interconnectedness with the Divine so that you can be the steady way showers through the rough waters of change that you see around you. The challenges of these times are simply seen by the Masters as tremendous opportunities being presented to those who truly want to walk the Earth as conscious living Masters.

The Great Masters who have realized their freedom are coming forth to give us their assistance in co-creating this next great Golden Age of Freedom.

Master Saint Germain

Chaos and upheaval naturally come forward when a great shift in planetary consciousness is eminent. As humanity begins developing enough true, loving compassion to move the collective consciousness of an entire world from selfishness to selflessness, you can expect to see resistance. Yet, beloveds, it is humanity's resistance to letting go of the old ways that is supporting the chaos and confusion. Systems based on greed and power need to fall away. And those who depend on those systems will either run head-long into fear or surge forward knowing that something new can arise from the ashes—something that is designed to support an entirely new way of being in your world.

We are calling you to establish this new way of living—one that is founded beyond the need to either resist or go into battle with your existing systems. If you can allow yourself to accept each moment—unconditionally—just as it is, you will see yourself, each other and the world moving into the unified heart of its Divine Blueprint, which is founded in freedom. We are calling you into our fields of unity to assist you in shifting your perspective so you can play a more active part in what is truly a magnificent transition for your entire world.

There are those of you who know you are the pioneers of the next Golden Age of Freedom—those of you who made pre-birth soul agreements to play your unique part in shifting the consciousness of your world. Many on your planet expect your leaders to do the work that we are now asking of you. Though countless numbers of Ascended Masters have always been in service to the leaders of all of your countries, these leaders often serve with their hands tied to the traditions of the past. Thus we come to you, beloveds, to assist you in realizing your freedom and your mastery so you can work directly with your leaders, your communities and your families in creating a whole new way of living in your world.

Many of your leaders, consciously or unconsciously, are reaching out to you to take a more active role in establishing completely new systems that are designed to foster more and more equality on every level of your existence. Leaders are often self-serving and support systems that tend to override the higher choices they could be making. Thus we come to you, beloveds, to expand and nourish the unconditional love that is naturally encoded within your hearts.

A true change in consciousness can only take place within an open heart, and it is only from an open heart that the Divine Blueprint for humanity's freedom can truly be implemented.

Your time has come.

Master Kuthumi

Here are some major keys for living your mastery—keys for moving you out of fear and duality and into more love and joy. You have been taught that fear is the opposite of love, yet we desire to bring this basic understanding into a more useful context within your everyday life.

Fear is the foundation of every negative thought. Just let that sink in so you can observe how responsible a Master must be in his or her thinking. Your thoughts and feelings are constantly manifesting your reality. Even though many of you know this, you still keep on thinking thoughts founded in the fear-based information stored in your memories or the doubts you have already projected into your future. When a thought is placed into the ethers, even a casual thought, it is heard by all those within the celestial realms. Those radiant servants of the One see you as pure expressions of the Creator and thus their sole purpose is to assist you in your manifestations. Please feel deeply into this—the whole company of Heaven is at your beckon call! The Archangels and their heavenly host as well as the Elohim and their celestial host are your servants!

There will be no successful creation of a new Golden Age until you are willing to take full heart-felt responsibility for your creations!

You, beloveds, are being asked to make some foundational choices if you truly choose to walk the Earth as a living Master. The most fundamental of these choices is this: In each moment are you creating love and expanding that frequency within your body and world? Or are you creating fear and expanding that frequency within your body and world? Whichever one you choose will manifest in your life. Since you are the creator of your reality, no one else is ever responsible for what you have manifested in your life.

Are you living the peace, joy, harmony and love that is everyone's true spiritual inheritance? Are you living in the freedom that is the keynote of the next Golden Age? Can you lovingly and without judgment interact with all the anomalies in your world and still maintain a steady connection with the incorruptible love that you truly are? This is the definition of Mastery and your destiny.

As you witness your thoughts and feelings, you will see that you are constantly choosing between love and fear—between separation and unity.

You attract relationships and conditions into your life based on what you think and feel you deserve.

The more you know that love is who you are, the more you will experience the joy that attracts to you what you really want and the more power you have to cease giving energy to fear-based thoughts and feelings. When you see with the eyes of the heart, you will see that the universe around and within you is solely there to fulfill your every desire.

Lady Master Quan Yin

You have sought love in the outer and the other and thereby only temporarily tasted what is possible in the eternal. Real love has barely been experienced in your world. Your pain in not finding the love that you actually are has reached a threshold that is breaking open your hearts. This has become necessary throughout much of your world due to humanity's fear-based stubbornness to surrender to love. We are here to assist you in experiencing your own true nature, which is to live and love unconditionally. When you experience your unchanging, essential nature, you will want to live as that at all times. And that is the major foundation and major key for living in a Golden Age.

The Key to Mastery is to become so profoundly honest with yourself that you are willing to look at all the ways and all the times you are inwardly not living, thinking or feeling unconditional love. We witness that this seems nearly impossible to many of you, as you wonder how you can truly love unconditionally all that goes on in a world such as yours? The question we would then ask of you is why did you come to a world such as yours, if not to be a loving catalyst for change?

Many of you confirm your intent to love unconditionally, yet your innermost thoughts demonstrate that true compassion is still very rare. The changes you are now seeing are the trumpets heralding the possibility of a new Golden Age. We come during these pivotal times to encourage you to bring your minds into such profound alignment with your heart that the codes of Light designed to assist you in living in Unity Consciousness can indeed be activated. Many of you are now hearing us calling you into the freedom of your true birthright.

Within your heart is all the love, wisdom, abundance and power you seek.
