Moving Through the Shift

Part I

The foundations of your new Golden Age are being created out of your heart's deep agreement to use all you have learned from your previous age and all you are learning now as you witness very specific demonstrations of the transformational energies that are sweeping through the land, the oceans, the governments of your world, the military and the hearts of all people everywhere.

Masters Saint Germain and Lady Portia

We are delighted to share with you that all that you are witnessing, no matter how horrendous or chaotic it may appear, is assisting everyone in your world to expand their heart's capacities for compassion. People of every nation, color and creed are starting to embrace each other with new levels of respect and increased love and caring. You are all here to live as the Love and Light of your world. Your physical planet and humanity were meant to be living demonstrations of your shared love. All of the upheavals you are witnessing within and upon your Earth are preparing her, as surely as they are preparing you, in being a clearer and more expanded expression of your original Divine Essence.

To avoid fear responses regarding what is happening in Japan and elsewhere, lift your attention above the situation and place it instead into humanity's Divine Blueprint. Nothing is really ever outside of that glorious plan, yet take note: you are living in a freewill zone, so what is happening is partly based on what everyone has collectively created over many thousands of years. It is not in the Divine Plan that you suffer or experience discomfort, yet as creators of the conditional levels of your world, you do bear the consequences of your actions.

Japan and all those who have engaged in creating nuclear plants have not remained conscious of their actions or their part in mining uranium. Japan is simply playing a large role right now in showing the consequences of their unconscious actions. Those involved with the plants in Japan and even some of those who have been affected by the tsunami have volunteered themselves on the inner planes based on knowing that it would assist them balancing out their creations from previous lives. Some of the major players there and elsewhere around the globe were given the choice of doing things differently this time and for some, it is their last opportunity to continue evolving with the Earth.

You can assist the situation in Japan and elsewhere by aligning all of the energies around and within the nuclear reactors with the pure frequencies that reside within the crystalline core of the Earth. These powerful energies of the Light therein, can then be used to transmute any misaligned or ill-created energy back into its original crystalline expressions of consciousness. Then expand that crystalline perfection into anywhere in Japan or around the world that is being affected by nuclear energy. Just as your crystalline DNA is being awakened, so is the Earth's DNA being reactivated. And just as old energies in your body can be transmuted and used to bring in the new, so too this energy can be used to create positive changes.

Many around the world are being given a last chance to create differently in this embodiment. Many were called forth on the inner planes where they were invited to create for the good of the whole and not according to their own personal desires for power, wealth or recognition. Everyone is being given the same glorious opportunity for moving into Unity or Golden Age Consciousness, yet always the choice is up to the individual.

The wars that go on around your world are always demonstrating the battle within. Players volunteer to play out these war games; yet just like video games on computers, this war mentality eventually becomes part of how one's consciousness gets programmed to kill and destroy. As a final tribute to those who have played these war games as a demonstration of humanity's inner battle, you can now extend your gratitude by inviting yourself and everyone else to shift all of the passion that went into those war games into creating a world based on equality and mutual support rather than fear and competition.

As you expand your awareness of all that is bringing you into the glory of an entirely new cycle of creation, pay attention to what you are creating ~ is it adding or distracting from what would be good for everyone? All of the recent and current events that are taking place in your world are allowing people to see how humanity has been creating based on their limited beliefs in lack and limitation and how these beliefs lead to separation, greed and competition. Yet the crumbling of the old can now become the building blocks for the new.

Now is the time to remember that there were nuns and monks who were not affected by the radioactive energies from the explosion of the atom bombs in Hiroshima and Nagasaki because these beings remembered that they could not be terminated. They did not allow themselves to bring fear into their minds or bodies. By staying centered within the purity of their Presence, every cell in their bodies stayed aligned with their original Divine encoding. This activated the Light within a sphere around their body so its core would remain aligned with their hearts. In essence they did not waver from who they truly were! That is what we are suggesting for each one of you during this transitional cycle you are presently experiencing.

To aid you in staying aligned with your Divine Presence at all times, we have created the Golden Age Man and Woman Course.
