CLAIMING YOUR MASTERY

“You are an ongoing testament that the seed of unconditional love that was planted in your heart at your spiritual inception is indeed opening to receive the great Light and Love of Source. We shall remain with you until all of you are ascended and free”

- Jeshua and Mary Magdalene

Master Kuthumi and Lady Claire

It may surprise you to learn that you must actually claim your mastery to embody it and if you do not claim it, you will not consciously experience the joy of walking the Earth as a living master. Once you invoke your Presence or Master Self, you are also calling in your capacity to remain present and focused on the original, Source-encoded inheritance of your soul. Your relationship to yourself, to others, and to the life you have known then starts shifting in remarkable ways.

When I lived as Saint Francis, I was often seen as being overly disciplined, yet Claire and I actually believed that it was noble to live in hardship and thus we chose to take much upon ourselves as did the rest of our loyal little spiritual community. We all agreed that we wanted to emulate what we perceived to be the true life of a Christed soul. We deeply desired to live naturally as Christ had lived and so we lived that life to the best of our understanding and ability. Though our lives may have appeared bleak and difficult to those in our surrounding communities, we were truly living in the ecstasy of the Divine.

Most of you are living very different lives than we did and most of you are not being guided to live in such perceived hardship, yet many of you are being called to spend more time and energy building your spiritual life and communities, just as we were called to do.

We know you know that all is truly spiritual, yet it is still necessary to stay in the flow of your Divine Blueprint and thus we share with you that discipline to your mastery is still vital and necessary.

For thousands of years we in the spiritual realms have been waiting for this Great Shift of the Ages, and thus we come forward to assist you in staying awake and present to your unique reason for being here. You have the opportunity of ushering in a New Golden Age, yet it is not being done for you, but rather through you. It requires both your individual and collective mastery to truly move the consciousness of a world into a new dimension of being. To claim your mastery, you must choose from your heart to allow your Presence to be the true guide of your life.

Master El Morya and Archangel Michael

One of the major disciplines for these days involves your willingness to release your mind, body and feeling nature from all of the separation models that have been driving humanity throughout the centuries. This is something that Saint Francis and Claire truly accomplished on every level, including the physical.

We are suggesting for these times that you center yourself in your Presence and begin focusing more on the eternal domains of your consciousness. When you remove your attention long enough from the limiting third dimensional foundations of mass consciousness, it becomes much easier to truly witness how humanity has been programmed to live in fear and limitation, and we dare say, slavery to the illusions that have supported separation.

This has been going on for so long that it is barely recognized by the majority of souls; yet know as well, beloveds, that there is nothing more beautiful nor powerful than a slave who has freed himself or herself from the chains that have bound them. The chains these days are not so obvious. They are subtly woven into your media, your technologies, the air you breathe, the water you drink and the food you eat.

Misinformation is being broadcast through your computers, your televisions, your radios, your ipods and all kinds of technological devices. That being said, we also see that much that is coming forth through your worldwide web is valuable, so once again discernment is mandatory. As you become increasingly more present to your true inheritance as master souls whose Divine mission is to live as embodied expressions of Source, you can enjoy being here fully while being a witness to the truth that rides above mass consciousness and is calling all of humanity to awaken.

Lady Master Nada

The scent of the Rose contains the frequency of my essence. Every soul emits a fragrance and comes into and out of the world with their specific essence, their specific keynote sound, and their specific connection to the Sacred Rays that are sustaining the qualities they particularly desire to embody.

Part of my focus is on re-stimulating the memory of every soul's essence so they can truly feel and often even inhale their own unique frequency as a glorious fragrance. Your olfactory sense is the oldest and therefore the closest to your more ancient knowing of the Self. Your fragrance is connected into your body through your senses, yet it has the capacity to bridge your mind and your body with your spirit and in so doing, it lifts you for a few moments into the true ecstasy of the Divine.

Often your floral-like fragrance can be experienced during those few precious moments between sleeping and waking or when making love. The essence of which I speak is part of the Divine Feminine frequency within every man, woman and child. During this time of the Great Shift of the Ages, the reinstatement of the power, wisdom and love nature of the Divine Feminine will remain a major part of your walking the Earth as living masters.

It is critical for the ascension of humanity that the male and female walk in equality both within themselves and within their relationships, for they were always meant to walk the Earth as respected equals.

Master Saint Germain and Lady Portia

You are on the brink, beloveds, you are on the brink—the edge of now-here that is undeniably leading you into the sea of the Divine Infinite. Some of you have already jumped over the brink. Congratulations are in order, for you have said, “Take me, I am yours.” Remember, dear hearts, that this level of surrender allows you to be enfolded and held within the arms of the Divine where there is truly nothing to fear.

What you have left behind or are leaving is the part of you that identified with the world of duality. Has it all served you? Of course. Can it still serve you? Yes and no. You will continue to manifest upon the third dimension, only now you will be using fifth dimensional tools and at least the fifth dimensional level of your consciousness. You will still be enjoying the world, only now you will experience it very differently.

Much that amused and excited you in the past may gently and naturally move aside to be replaced by what is truly more nourishing to your soul. You may find that you want to stay in the silence or in nature to experience the ever-abiding joy and peace that resides therein. As your finer senses open, you will begin experiencing life in a whole new way. You will be more aligned with the lasting, unlimited pleasures of your Presence, and though you can continue to enjoy the world around you, your heart will remain in tune with a joy that is not dependent on your physical world or body.

As you align with what is everlasting rather than that which gives only short term pleasure, even your love lives and your sexual experiences are going to shift into more of the infinite.

As you come into Union with the Divine, your physical body will move deeper into its capacity to sustain the natural ecstasy of the Beloved.

Jeshua and Mary Magdalene

Your ascension into Unity or Christ Consciousness is related to your willingness to have enough faith to make the leap that Saint Germain has just shared with you. It took courage and pure trust in God as our infinite supply and support for me to shift my consciousness from the familiar world we knew on Earth to the unfamiliar world of Spirit that was calling me and later my beloved into our ascensions.

Each of you must take this same leap of faith to realize your mastery and to keep walking it when so many others are going in a different direction. Even though at times it can feel disorienting, know that you are profoundly blessed to have so many in your world walking beside you.

We remain deeply delighted to be an actual part of your ascension. It is our profound joy to support you in opening your heart to the truth of your soul living as awakened consciousness within the form world. You are an ongoing testament that the seed of unconditional love that was planted in your heart at your spiritual inception is indeed opening to receive the great Light and Love of Source. We shall remain with you until all of you are ascended and free.

*We are with you in the womb of your collective remembrance.
We are less than a breath away, witnessing your emergence into the Spiritual Heart of your Divine Presence.*
