The Enlightened Path of the Presence Part II

The most exquisite and enlightening experience of your life instantly shows up when you are fully open, receptive and available to the Presence that is within and all around you. For this is the SELF that has always been there waiting for you to remember that THIS is truly who you are! By remaining completely open, receptive and available to whatever its divine existence is offering you, great experiences will simply keep pouring into your life. Every moment literally contains opportunities for expanding your enlightenment, and you can discover it spontaneously when you give up searching "out there" for true happiness and fulfillment. Start trusting your ability to receive what you need in each and every moment, knowing that as your Presence, you have the capacity to constantly be living in the tremendous Grace that is being offered you during these auspicious times. My life was filled with the miracles that come from simply being present and remaining in Oneness with God.

~ Jeshua or Jesus the Christ

Everything that has come into your life is necessary for your highest evolution. Jeshua has assured you that this was also true for him, and when you really accept that there is a perfectly orchestrated Divine Plan that you are actually creating with your Presence, then you can stop trying so hard to make things happen and just allow them to happen through you. Every experience can then be felt fully and you will see that everything and everyone in your life is a sacred part of your unique journey and that it is all there to give you the strength and the wisdom to make your ascension into Unity Consciousness.

Just as the Buddha came forth to teach you how to live in Oneness with Source, beloved Jeshua brought this capacity into the heart so love could lead the way and you would have the potential of walking as living masters on Earth. His ascension left its imprint upon your potential to rise out of the confines of your 3rd dimensional, physically-based consciousness.

When you truly allow each and every experience to enter you fully, then you will be merging with your Christ Self in a way that can amplify the strength, the beauty and the love that Christ Consciousness really implies in today's world. When you remain open and receptive to all that life is offering you, then many spontaneous activities will fill your days with wonder and your trust in your own God Presence will continue to expand exponentially. When you absolutely trust your inner world, the world around you will respond by supporting your freedom and your further enlightenment.

Living in a supreme state of trust means you need to regularly reinforce your choice to remain free of the limitations of the ego/mind as well as the will of your emotional body to feed your old memories. As those are released, you will be presented with opportunities to choose again and again to live beyond the confines of old beliefs and ways of being. This will involve making some of the most important choices of your life, yet let this be a liberating experience that will support you in being fully alive on the deepest levels of your being.

As you slowly tire of the ego's constant outer search, you will naturally start being divinely receptive to the Light within and discover an exquisite infinite source of inner peace and joy. It is already there at the core of your being; it is just underneath all the disguises of your ego and its desires to sidetrack you from living as your Presence.

An enlightened path leads you to a life that is naturally spontaneous, creative and totally devoted to each unfolding moment of your existence. From there you don't have to search for any profound life experience as enlightenment simply finds its way into you through your own Presence. As you become available to experience everything that arises, life itself will become part of what is enlightening every cell and atom of your being. Jeshua the Christ, Gautama the Buddha and every master chose during their lifetimes on Earth to live as their God Presence. And this, beloveds, is also your Divine Birthright.

Inside the immortal, undying domains of your being is a state of immense joy and unfathomable love that is independent of any outer cause. Freedom is found through letting go of any struggle to attain some better, new or improved experience of life.

We in the ascended realms invite you to join us during the three days of the annual Wesak celebration at the end of May. The Beloved Buddha and Jesus the Christ will be coming forth to share their Initiations, transmissions and to amplify all the qualities of the Presence that they so masterfully demonstrated in their own lives. You are being given the opportunity to have these qualities and their corresponding frequencies expanded within the etheric matrices of your own being to accelerate living as your Presence.
