How Can I Ascend? Part I

As the Great Shift in the Ages progresses, you may be hoping that all will magically turn out for the best. You may not know that you can assist yourself and humanity in ascending into the loving harmony and abundance of Unity or Christ Consciousness. You may not realize that you have an important contribution to bring into the new Golden Age. It takes living as your True Self to fully awaken and live as your own God Presence. Yet is there anything more important? In the last few years your Presence has been in council with us so we could support you in making your full ascension in this lifetime. We are here to provide that support at this auspicious time in your great awakening.

~ The Ascended Masters of the Councils of Shamballa

What are the dreams within your heart that are still waiting to be realized? Whatever fills your heart with joy, whatever excites you and whatever you feel most passionate about creating during your time here on Earth is most probably what you came here to do. Nothing feels better than being on purpose with your life when it is in direct alignment with your Divine Crystalline Blueprint for these times.

As you continue to go deeper into the second half of 2012, you may be feeling the internal growth pangs that are gnawing at your soul to become more present and to be a conscious participant in your own ascension into the freedom and unlimitedness of your True Self and Christ Consciousness, for it is from here that your heartfelt dreams are easily and gracefully realized.

This cycle is requiring your direct participation with both the eternal inner Self and its temporary outer expression in the world of form. Although you are essentially the divine director of your own life, it is your mind that is determining which level of your consciousness is truly in charge of your life. The human domain of your temporary personality self is primarily interested in the survival of its identity, its physical wellbeing, how to create and sustain co-dependent relationships, and how to build and preserve wealth. The eternal inner Self is only interested in expanding the Love and Light of Source within and around your body so you can express the unlimited opulence, beauty and majesty of the Divine while you are living on Earth.

Both of these domains of your consciousness are here to live in peaceful collaboration and co-creation, yet the directorship must be determined so there is no confusion about who is really in charge of your life. The primary focus of your eternal Presence is to expand and deepen its connection with your soul all the way into your cellular body so every particle of your being has the opportunity of being aligned with your potential to ascend into the unlimited consciousness of the Divine in this embodiment. This alignment is also assisting you in realizing your true purpose for being on Earth specifically during these times.

Almost everyone sees the world based on what they believe is true. Each one's world is a conglomeration of thoughts, feelings and memories that are different from anyone else. However, now you are moving into a cycle where you will have the magnificent opportunity of using your spiritual vision to include a scope of life that is way beyond your beliefs and your recorded information, and in fact, way beyond what humanity has considered possible for centuries!

This new way of seeing is based on your heart-felt willingness to see beyond survival and fear, beyond identifying with any levels of your consciousness that would limit you or another. Imagine for a moment how this alone would change how you relate to everything and everyone on your precious planet.

As you embody more and more of the unlimited consciousness of your Presence, you will automatically start seeing how your personality and your ego can become great allies in your ascension process. Many of you are in the process of shifting your values and your priorities because you know in your heart that every part of you must now move into maximum cooperation with your Presence so it can guide you through your ascension into living as your unlimited Divine Self. This is not about leaving the planet, yet rather about being on Earth within a completely new state of consciousness.
