A New Beginning Part II

In this new year a much greater percentage of humanity will choose to move into alignment with their Presence. You can assist in this global awakening of 2012 by visualizing, feeling and accepting that your own DNA is interdimensional and unlimited by any 3rd dimensional present or past life programming. You have the power to move your consciousness into your unlimited encoding from Source since it was originally programmed into every cell of light that composes the eternal substance of your being.

~ Archangel Metatron and the Queen of Light

Your endless potential will keep on expanding as you create an increasingly more active and intimate relationship with your Presence, as well as the Presence of your Twin Ray. This internal union will end all need to hold duality as your base of being, for it is not your true foundation; it is rather what you have accepted as important and true in your 3rd dimensional reality. Over thousands of years, duality became humanity's primal way of living, which created conflict and lack and fed the ego's ideas of a separate self. Real love will never be found in duality anymore than true satisfaction can be found in the material world.

As duality became the accepted norm, love became a part of hate, and relationships based on real love became almost extinct. Duality placed the majority of you into a position of longing for that imaginary "other," yet that myth must now be dispelled along with any beliefs that the material world holds any kind of lasting satisfaction. This world is here for your enjoyment, yet not to fill a missing link in your being. Your capacity to create is endless, yet this too can become a kind of mental addiction, so create knowing that you are doing it for your pleasure and to push your limits as a co-creator, yet not out of a need to identify with your creation and to make you more important than anyone else.

There are beings on your planet who are energetically so aligned with their Presence that they are already living in the 5th dimensional domains of their consciousness. We are calling you to add to these numbers. Whatever has been defining your identity according to the mind of your ego has also been limiting your capacity to live in your heart and in the freedom of Unity Consciousness. Invite your ego to support you by working in harmony with the innate wisdom of your love-based heart. The thinking mind was originally designed to serve the heart, not to dominate it, so it can add to—rather than subtract from—the sovereignty of your True Self.

The ego only developed a separate agenda based on humankind's fall into fear, survival and duality thinking, until it eventually began to override the true authority of the heart. What many of you are currently referring to as the ascension is an ongoing process of lifting one's consciousness into the 5th dimension. Yet before this can become a reality, there has to be an ongoing willingness to place the authority of your soul back into your heart so its love-based wisdom can assist the ego in placing all of its agendas at the feet of the Presence. Your part is to stay alert so you are not tempted to revert back into any kind of survival mentality.

You are entering a time where cooperation will be considered normal and the new leaders will truly be opening their hearts to a place where they want to do what is best for all of the people. This will come from their profound, heart-felt willingness to see themselves as being one with the people they are serving! As you each move into a deeper and more conscious alignment with your own Divine Crystalline Blueprint, you will discover that it has always been designed to assist you in living as a loving, heart-centered being who only wants to sustain ways of living on your glorious planet that are supporting all of its varied lifeforms.

Your heart has the magnetic capacity to initiate levels of feeling that have yet to be experienced by most of humanity. Love is the foundation of the Presence and it is through its love-based strength and power that real change can take place in your world. In fact, it is only through the heart that one can access the inner wisdom of the Universe and live their mastery on Earth. This is how each one of you will truly create the peace you want to see manifested in your world.
