Golden Age Living Part 2

There is a moment within every heart that is divinely blueprinted to awaken one's soul to its true inheritance as an undeniable expression of Source Love and Light. Throughout history this kind of a spiritual awakening has most often taken place within individuals who were ready to bring their service into the world. Even with an awakening, it would sometimes take years before that service might completely manifest. Yet now there is such a universal outpouring of Love and Light around your world that thousands of souls are awakening almost simultaneously. As this quantum awakening progresses, be prepared to be joyfully overwhelmed by how quickly you may all be crossing over the threshold into a new Golden Age.

Masters Jeshua & Mary Magdalene, Kuthumi & Lady Claire:

Due to the tremendous influx of Love and Light that has been pouring into the hearts of humanity over the last few months, many across your world are starting to remember how powerful, loving and wise they truly are and how they have the ability to make positive changes within themselves, within their relationships and within the world! The shifts you want to see are now being supported by the angels and all of us on the spiritual planes more than ever. Yet keep in mind that we only give our energies to the creations that are founded in love. Other creations attract energy through vibrational resonance, so since you have free will, whatever you think is made manifest based on the depth of your intent. In these times, your thoughts and feelings are being amplified more than usual; therefore, it is a good idea to pay very close attention to what you are putting into motion.

Source energies are continuing to stimulate the remembrance of Oneness within the ancient crystalline strands of your DNA. Although these strands are all blueprinted to be opened during the Great Shift in the Ages, they are like little microcosmic time capsules—each one is going to light up in its own time, and the actual moment is determined by your Presence and your soul's Divine Blueprint for these times. As these strands wake up, they may be stimulating very ancient, pre-separation memories of having lived in Oneness within other civilizations. These memories are important to humanity because they can be used to establish Unity Consciousness within these times.

You are all creators who are literally dreaming your next evolutionary step into existence as surely as you dreamed your present world into being. It all begins inside of each of your hearts and minds and it is all happening now. It is your choice what your new Golden Age is going to look like and feel like as you walk within it. Yet one thing is certain—you must be totally present to live in the freedom that you are being called into at this time.

There is a pulsing glow of living Light that is becoming stronger within your planet. This increase has expanded humanity's access to the crystalline grid that is surrounding your Earth. That grid is being supported by each one of you who is aligned with the Source Love and Light at the core of your being. This crystalline, or All Christ grid, is supporting all the Love and Light that each of you has assimilated over the ages so your combined forces can spiritually lift the consciousness of your world into the 5th Dimension.

The frequency changes within your bodies and within your world are a necessary part of this great shift. They are making the ascension into the 5th dimension possible, and though you are truly multi-dimensional, a full ascension involves taking the whole of your emotional, physical and mental bodies into Unity Consciousness. This potential was amplified for many of you as you walked through the 11.11.11 portal. What you established within your world at that time is now part of a bridge into the 5th dimension that will continue to be strengthened by each one of you as you continue to walk more fully as your Presence.

Please know that you are truly being supported and applauded across all of the heavenly worlds for building this bridge. And as a result of your continued dedication, the ascension gates will continue to widen to include more and more of humanity. When you are truly present you are—in that very moment—an awakened being. If your mind wanders off into the memories of yesterday or the fantasies of tomorrow, then you have placed your attention back into the illusionary world of the ego and separated yourself from your Divine Presence. Though this is where the majority of humanity is still focusing its consciousness, you are being called to do whatever is necessary to live as your True Self so you can Walk the Earth as Living Master during these pivotal times and manifest your part in the new Golden Age.
