Living as a Community Part I

It has always been the destiny of the people who would be on the Earth at this time to remember their roots within the one family. This family consists of a community of souls who are now living on Earth because they have been invited to ascend with her into Unity Consciousness. This family includes ancient starseeds who were called to Earth many thousands of years ago as well as the more recent starseeds who volunteered to assist with the ascension during your present Shift of the Ages. Yet you are all assisting in moving the consciousness of your world into the higher dimensions of your true spiritual inheritance. This ascension also includes those souls who have already left your Earth and those who are considered the ancestors of your race who are connected into your own bloodlines, for they are all part of expanding your capacities to remember what it means to live as ONE family. In Unity Consciousness everyone lives in support of each other's God Presence at all times and under all circumstances. We are here to assist you in moving consciously into your ancient inheritance to live once again in the Oneness with each other and with Source

~ The Masters in the Galactic Council of the Christ Light

*This Oneness can be experienced now whenever you come together in Divine Love and true compassion and respect for the uniqueness of each other's spiritual journey. When there is no opposition and no opinions about the right or wrongness of another's journey, then there is no war within or without. When there is no attachment to how you or another has to be to earn love, then there is the unlimited potential to reside in Unity*

Consciousness. Communities can be formed by those who have a common spiritual focus or between those who share common interests, yet the overall community that will be embracing all of humanity can only be created when there is unconditional love and acceptance that each one is learning what they need to learn to move ever closer to their own Presence, and everyone sees the Presence as the True Self.

The success of your collective ascension into living Presence to Presence will ultimately be determined by the powerful field of love you are creating when you come together with others who are sustaining the same or similar frequencies within or around their bodies. In fact, you are naturally attracted to others who are emitting the same or similar energies.

Often the word “community” conjures up thoughts of where one lives or works in relationship to their immediate friends, families or co-workers. However, the deeper quest for a community founded in Oneness truly arises out of your deep passion to reunite with the Presence within all of life, and this profoundly ancient desire is encoded within your heart. As spiritual beings we know within our hearts that living in Oneness with our Presence and the Presence of others is essentially what will bring everlasting peace within, and then peace can truly become part of the outer world.

When you are practicing compassion, appreciation, forgiveness, gratitude and generosity, you are living a spiritual life. You can expand your spiritual experience of life by spending time with your Presence in the silence so you can hear its directions. This will naturally lead to adopting new ways of living in the world, as well as forming new and healthier habits that will support you living in a more intimate relationship with your Presence while you are living on the physical plane.

Take time to carefully determine if your thoughts, feelings and actions are truly coming from your Presence as it is from that level of your soul that you are truly preparing to live in Unity Consciousness with all of life. Meanwhile keep moving into what it feels like to live in union with the essential nature of every soul, every animal, every bird, every tree, every mountain, every body of water and every expression of life on your planet until you are able to experience the deep interconnectedness that is truly supporting the spirit of “community” between all forms of life. It is here you will experience the boundless joy of being in loving relationship with the Divine Source in all your relationships.
